JOINT NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE

The Parties file this Joint Notice of Compliance with the Court’s order issued early this morning. ECF 5. Following the filing of the instant suit, but before the Court issued its order, counsel for Defendants informed counsel for Plaintiffs that Defendants had notified the relevant local election officials that their monitors would be stationed outside. The Parties conferred and reached the agreement outlined in ECF No. 4. Plaintiffs filed a notice of the Parties’ agreement with the Court (ECF 4) to alert the Court that Plaintiffs were withdrawing their application for temporary restraining order based on the agreement. That notice appears to have crossed with the Court’s order.

This Joint Notice is to notify the Court of the Parties’ compliance with the Court’s order:

- Plaintiffs confirm that Defendants have notice of the suit and previous application for TRO.
- Defendants confirm that, in addition to the Parties' agreement outlined in ECF 4, no observers under 52 U.S.C. § 10305 will be inside Texas polling locations or election tabulation centers.

Dated: November 5, 2024

Respectfully submitted.
